What are viral facebook fanpages and why should you create them?

Don't know what facebook fanpages are?

Facebook, a social networking site with over 500 million users, has set up a system where you can add a page to their site. This page could be a site for your business, for you as a person, for a charity or cause or anything else you would like.

For us internet marketers, we use it to target a niche or product group that we can market to.

By having a fanpage like this, you can invite people to “like” or join your fanpage. These people can then invite all their facebook friends to also join your facebook fanpage. This means that the more people that like your page, the more people would see that their friends “liked” your page. This can cause your page to go viral, meaning it will keep on getting massive amounts of fans without you having to invite anyone.

So what do you do after you have a fanpage with thousands of fans?

You monetize it, meaning you create a way that you can profit from it. This is so easy, because you can post an update on the fanpage, which your fans will see on their facebook news feed. This means that every time you make an update, thousands of people would see your update or advertisement and potentially hundreds of them could click on them, of which many will buy your product or complete your offer, which in turn would make you money.

And this is where the beauty of facebook fanpages lie. If you can create a huge fanpage with lots of fans, the sky is the limit on how many ways you can profit with this fanpage.

With my Facebook Fanpage Blueprint, I show you step-by-step how you can create a viral fanpage from scratch, with secrets to get hordes of ready-to-buy fans and how to monetize it for huge profits.

HOT Niches/Markets/ideas to go after for your Fanpages

Many internet marketers already know how powerful Facebook Fanpages could be for driving traffic and boosting your online profits. There are hundreds if not thousands of internet marketers and businesses who are making full time incomes just by marketing through Facebook fanpages.

Imagine how endless the possibilities would be if you had a fanpage with a 124,560 fans. You will have true push button traffic at your fingertips.

For example, take a look at the following Fanpages and notice the topics and the number of people who have joined.

You can use these for ideas on how you can also create a viral fanpage. Remember – people want something that will them smile, shock them, interest them or that will amaze them. Find out what people WANT. Catchy, slang, or “hot” street talk is also effective sometimes.

Notice the topic – it is funny and at the same time people on Facebook like “funny” Fanpages.

You can make money from viral Fanpages by selling Gigs on Fiverr or renting out “Status Update space” to potential advertisers or people.

People are already offering this guy money for this fanpage!

Title - I Hate Getting Texts That Only Say "k"

Here is another fanpage that has gone “viral” and has over 3 million fans.

Annotations on the left side of the page:

- A red box highlights the text: "Make the k go away!", "Buy 3 get 3 free on funny shirts!", "http://www.roadkilltshirts.com/Default.aspx?afid=5", and "Created by Jake Radvansky!".
- A red box highlights the text: "3,972,318 people like this" above three small profile pictures.

Annotations on the right side of the page:

- A red arrow points from the text "Monetising this Fanpage by Affiliates." to a post featuring a Santa Claus graphic with the text "WHERE'S MY HOES AT?".
- Below the arrow, the text "Monetising this Fanpage by Affiliates." is written in red.

The main post content includes:

- A post by "I Hate Getting Texts That Only Say 'k'" with the text: "Another great t-shirt! Over 1000, with a buy 3 get 3 free deal! $14.99 each! Get funny t-shirts here: <http://www.roadkilltshirts.com/Default.aspx?afid=5> Only 4 months till Christmas!!! Don't forget your hoes..."
- A post by "I Hate It When People Chew With Their Mouths Open." with the text: "Page: 6,201 people like this."

Now this Fanpage is pretty funny but its something that people can relate to.

How many times have you had your friends SMS you and reply to you with the word "k". I know I hate this!

You will notice that this Fanpage has generated a lot of interest and the owner is cashing in by promoting affiliates. However, you should notice that this owner is not using a landing page or a welcome page. By using a landing page he can double the amount of visitors to his fanpage.
